

Appendix 4: Educational Resources

Logo	URL	Summary	Target Audience
	http://www.2smrt4u.com	Safety information for youth about social networking sites and blogs. Includes a Family/Educator Toolbox. Sponsored by the U.S. Postal Service, NCMEC and Project Safe Childhood.	Youth, Parents and Teachers http://www.asacp.org	Association of Sites Advocating Child Protection (ASACP) is a non-profit organization dedicated to eliminating child pornography from the Internet. ASACP battles child pornography through its CP reporting hotline, and by organizing the efforts of the online adult industry to combat the heinous crime of child sexual abuse. ASACP also works to help parents prevent children from viewing age-inappropriate material online.	Adults and the Public http://www.besafeonline.org/English	The website is part of the Safer Use of Services on the Internet (SUSI) project, an Internet safety awareness project supported by the European Union Safer Internet Action Plan. (UK)	Parents and Teachers http://www.chatdanger.com	Childnet Site devoted to education and proactive behaviour regarding Internet use for youth (E.U.)	Youth http://www.cnet.com/2001-13384_1-0.html	CNet – an online web portal offers this site about online safety. Features online videos, forum chats and multi-media resources for parents. (U.S.)	Parents http://www.childnet-int.org	Childnet International's mission is to work in partnership with others around the world to help make the Internet a great and safe place for children. Sponsored by the EU Daphne Programme. (E.U.)	Children, Youth, parents, professionals. (Excellent Site*)
	http://www.childsafe.net.au	Quick and clean Internet safety site. (AU)	Parents http://www.connectsafely.org	ConnectSafely is for parents, teens, educators, advocates - everyone engaged in and interested in the impact of the social Web. The user-driven, all-media, multi-platform phase of the Web has begun, we all have much to learn about it, and this is the central space – linked to from social networks across the Web - for learning about safety on Web 2.0 together. Sponsored by many online sites and	Youth, Parents and Professionals portals such as FaceBook, Google and MySpace. (U.S.)

	http://www.common sense media.org	A non-partisan, not-for-profit organization, we provide trustworthy information and tools, as well as an independent forum, so that families can have a choice and a voice about the media they consume. (U.S.)	Children, Youth and Parents http://www.cybersafety.ca.gov	The Department of California (U.S.) Consumer Affairs and the California Coalition for Children's Internet Safety collaboration to help parents and community leaders protect our children in the online world. The Coalition's mission is to foster collaboration between stakeholders and experts. With the help of the Coalition, the Department will offer a series of educational programs on the safe, smart, and legal use of the Internet.	Adults, Policy Makers http://www.cybernetrix.com.au	A computer based Internet safety program for secondary school students. It teaches students about the risks of using the Internet and provides advice on managing and minimizing those risks. (AU)	Teens  http://www.cyberquoll.com.au	The CyberQuoll computer based activities have been designed for primary school students and are supported by a comprehensive suite of materials to help you teach Internet safety. Please select from the following links to download the resources and find out more about the program. (AU)	Children, Parents and Teachers  http://www.netalert.gov.au/programs/cybersafe_schools/materials/phase_one/Teacher_Planning_and_PD.html	Teacher professional development resources which have been developed in phase one of the CyberSafe Schools program as part of NetAlert (AU).	Teachers and Educators http://www.cybersmart.org	Curriculum- Free to educators highly acclaimed curriculum empowering K-8 students to use the Internet safely, responsibly and effectively. Originally co-published with Macmillan/McGraw-Hill. Original standards-based lesson plans. Student activity sheets. Non-sequential for flexible implementation. (U.S.)	Teachers and Educators http://www.cybersmartkids.com.au	Youth oriented website sponsored by the Australian Communications and Media Authority (ACMA). Site contains quizzes, links and chat tips.	Children, Youth and Parents http://www.cybertip.ca/en/cybertip	Cybertip.ca is Canada's National Tipline for reporting the online sexual exploitation of children. It is a centralized web portal for receiving and addressing reports from the public regarding child pornography, luring, child sex tourism, and	Children, Youth, Public, Parents, Law Enforcement

		children who are exploited through prostitution. Cybertip.ca also provides the public with information, referrals and other resources to help Canadians keep their children safe while on the Internet. Information on child development and Internet use. (CA)
	http://www.cyberwise.ca	The "National Strategy for the Protection of Children from Sexual Exploitation on the Internet" site. This Website provides tips, resources and useful links for Canadians on how to use the Internet safely. Among other things, you will find a chat dictionary, classroom activities, kids' games, and descriptions of online dangers such as cyberbullying, child pornography and luring.(CA)	Children, Youth, Parents, Teachers, And Professionals
	http://www.deal.org	The deal.org Program, started in 1997, is affiliated with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. It is an information and prevention tool for youth. The program encourages youth throughout Canada to make healthy, informed decisions and to get involved in their communities. The site consists of four distinct projects, a digital library — the Knowzone — the Toolbox, the Local Sites and the Webzine, all of which contain content and resources developed specifically for youth.	Youth
	http://tcs.cybertipline.com/knowthedangers.htm	Collaboration between cybertipline.com, NetSmartz, NCMEC, the U.S. Ad Council and the U.S. Dept. of Justice. Contains Public Service Announcements.	Youth, Parents and Public
 Dot Safe	http://www.dotsafe.eun.org	Homes site of the European School Net Program, part of the overall European Union initiatives. Hosts a database of resources in multiple languages. Coordinates research and best practices analysis. (EU)	Teachers and Professionals
	http://www.ecpat.net/eng/Ecpat_inter/projects/preventing_pornography/prevent.asp	Safety For Children Online Project – ECPAT has developed Internet safety tools used internationally to educate children about online exploitation and child pornography. (International)	Professionals, ISP's
	http://www.enough.org/	Enough Is Enough (EIE), a non-partisan, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, emerged in 1994 as the national leader on the front lines to make the Internet safer for children and families. Since then, EIE has pioneered and led the effort to confront online pornography, child pornography, child stalking and sexual predation with innovative initiatives and effective communications. Founded by Donna Rice Hughes. (US)
	http://www.fbi.gov/publications/pguide/pguidee.htm	"A Parent's Guide to Internet Safety" produced by the F.B.I. (US)	Parents

	http://www.getnetwise.org	Getnetwise.org is a public service website operated by the non-profit Internet Education Foundation and supported by a wide array of Internet and computer companies as well as a host of public interest organizations and child / family activists. The GetNetWise website offers a comprehensive "Online Safety Guide" and lengthy inventory of "Tools for Families" that can be custom-tailored to the needs and values of individual families. Includes video tutorials for parents. (U.S.) http://www.getnetwise.org/videotutorials	Children, Youth and Parents
 Guidelines for Internet Safety in School	http://www.pen.k12.va.us/VDOE/Technology/OET/Internet-safety-guidelines.shtml	Virginia State Legislation (2006) added a requirement for acceptable Internet use policies to be developed by school superintendents. These safety components are required to be integrated into school division's instructional program. (U.S.)	Teachers and Education Policy Makers
	http://www.iKeepSafe.org	The Internet Keep Safe Coalition is a coalition of 49 state governors and first spouses, law enforcement officials, the American Medical Association, the American Academy of Pediatrics, and many other corporations and private associations dedicated to helping parents, educators, and caregivers by providing tools and guidelines to teach children the safe and healthy use of technology. (U.S.)	Children, Youth and Parents
	http://ilearn.isafe.org	i-SAFE partnered with Microsoft to create an 'On Demand' system for Internet safety education. Five options for educational video modules with five different users in mind. Registration required. (U.S.)	Students. Parents, "fifty+", Educators, and Law Enforcement
	http://www.Internet101.ca	Internet 101, a partnership with CyberWise.ca and the Mounted Police Foundation, has created a series of dynamic presentations about Internet safety. Videos, curricula, quizzes and handouts. Resource rich. (CA)	Children, Youth, Parents, Teachers
	Internet Literacy Guide	http://www.coe.int/T/E/Human_Rights/media/links/Events/Internet%20Literacy%20Handbook_en.asp	Internet Literacy Guide published by the European Council	Professionals

	http://www.staysafe.org/unicef	The Toolkit is part of a broader initiative to help governments, policy makers, industry leaders, parents, teachers, and social organizations empower children (and adults) to better protect their computers, their families, and themselves when using the Internet. Sponsored by Microsoft. (U.S.)	Professionals
	http://www.Internetsuperheroes.org/	Part of WiredSafety and WiredKids in partnership with Marvel Comics. (U.S.)	Children and Youth
	http://www.isafe.org	i-SAFE Inc. is the worldwide leader in Internet safety education. Founded in 1998 and endorsed by the U.S. Congress, i-SAFE is a non-profit foundation dedicated to protecting the online experiences of youth everywhere. i-SAFE incorporates classroom curriculum with dynamic community outreach to empower students, teachers, parents, law enforcement, and concerned adults to make the Internet a safer place.	Parents, Youth, Educators and Law Enforcement (Comprehensive curricula for many targets )
	http://www.protectchildren.ca/app/en/kik	Canadian Centre for Child Protection sponsors “Kids in the Know” an interactive safety education program for increasing the personal safety of children and reducing their risk of sexual exploitation. It focuses on building self-esteem and safety awareness in children from kindergarten to high school by teaching problem-solving skills. Includes interactive game and downloadable “Zoe and Molly Online” comicbook for (grade 4) children. (CA)	Children, Parents, Teachers, School Administrators
	http://www.kidsmart.org.uk/	Kidsmart is an award winning practical Internet safety website for schools, young people, parents, and agencies, produced by the children's Internet charity Childnet International. Resources include lesson plans, leaflets, posters, activity days and interactive games. (UK)	Youth, Parents and Teachers
	http://www.kinsa.net/	The Kids’ Internet Safety Alliance,(KINSA) was incorporated in 2005 as an response to the negative aspects of the Internet that harm young people. KINSA has unique expertise in law enforcement, prosecution, business and technology and partners with government, industry and other groups.	Adults, Professionals, Law Enforcement
	http://www.childnet-int.org/kia/	ChildNet International sponsored site with extensive online resources, videos and activities.	Children, Youth, Parents, Teachers, Volunteers and Schools

 Working to protect children	http://www.lucyfaithfull.org	A child protection charity committed to reducing the risk of children being sexually abused, specializing in safeguarding children from sexual abuse. To this end, they assess and treat people perpetrating and affected by child sexual abuse and contribute to research into developing effective interventions. Our policy is to collaborate with individuals and agencies internationally to develop a more child sensitive and offender aware culture in our societies. (UK)	Adults who may offend against children, their families and professionals assessing and treating current and potential sexual offenders
	http://www.missingkids.com	In 1996 the U.S. Congress established the Exploited Child Division within the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (NCMEC). The Exploited Child Division serves as a resource center for the public, parents, law enforcement, and others about the issues surrounding the sexual exploitation of children. Host Cybertip.ca – U.S. National Hotline and Netsmartz family of websites.	Adults, Professionals and Law Enforcement
 NetAlert	http://www.netalert.gov.au	NetAlert is part of the Australian Government's ongoing commitment to providing a safe online environment for all families, especially children. "Advice" section - http://www.netalert.gov.au/advice.html hosts excellent resources.	Parents, Teachers and Librarians
	http://www.nap.edu/netsafekids/	Following the release 'Youth, Pornography, and the Internet', a report on protecting children and teens from sexually explicit material and threats from sexual predators operating online, the National Research Council of the National Academies released NetSafeKids. It is based on the important findings of this report. It provides practical information and tips on types and sources of sexually explicit content, ways that inappropriate material can reach children and teens, the threat of cyberstalking, the pros and cons of filtering and monitoring tools, and other issues involving Internet safety.	Parents http://www.NetSmartz.org	Net Smartz Workshop is produced by the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC) and Boys and Girls Clubs of America. This comprehensive website contains web safety tips and educational materials for parents, kids, teens, educators and law enforcement officials. http://www.netsmartz.org/educators.htm (U.S.)	Youth, Parents, Professionals and Educators
	http://www.netsmartzkids.org	NCMEC sponsored site devoted to younger children which features interactive online safety games and videos.	Children
	http://www.netsmartz411.org	The NetSmartz Internet Safety Helpdesk is sponsored by the Qwest Foundation. (U.S.)	Adults and Guardians

	http://www.nettysworld.com.au	Netty's World is NetAlert's early childhood learning program. Interactive games and teaching support. There may be classes at junior primary level who would benefit from using this program.	Young Children
	http://www.unicef.org/magic	UNICEF Sponsored Website offering "Media Activities and Good Ideas by, with and for Children"	Youth, parents and professionals
 Media Awareness Network	http://www.media-awareness.ca	Media Awareness Network (MNet) is home to one of the world's most comprehensive collections of media education and Internet literacy resources. MNet is a Canadian non-profit organization pioneering the development of media literacy programs since 1996. Members of our team have backgrounds in education, journalism, mass communications, and cultural policy. We promote media and Internet education by producing online programs and resources, working in partnership with Canadian and international organizations, and speaking to audiences across Canada and around the world.	Parents and Teachers
	http://www.microsoft.com/protect/family/default.msp	Corporate site – "Encourage your kids to talk to you without fear of punishment about what they read and see on the Internet. Place the computer in a common room, not a child's bedroom." (U.S.)	Parents
 Milstein Child Safety Centre	http://www.mcgruff.org	Created by the National Crime Prevention Council (U.S.) this is an interactive site for children and tweens.	Children and Youth
	www.unece.org/highlights/Internet_guide/0331371_ECE_ANG.pdf	The United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) released a publication for teens in multiple languages, (2003)	Youth
	http://onguardonline.gov/index.html	OnGuardOnline.gov provides practical tips from the United States federal government and the technology industry to help you be on guard against Internet fraud, secure your computer, and protect your personal information.	Parents, Adults and Professionals

	http://takeparentalcontrol.org	Take Parental Control is a public service website provided by Playboy Enterprises. It features parental control fact sheets for a wide variety of media, including: television, cable, cell phones, video games and Internet surfing. The website also features a useful glossary of terms describing various technologies and parental control tools. Public service announcements are included as well.	Parents
	http://pauseparentplay.org	Pause-Parent-Play is an organization that offers a compendium of websites and services that parents can use to learn more about the media their children might want to see, hear, or play. The effort is sponsored by a diverse coalition of companies and associations. The coalition's website features numerous links answering questions about how TV ratings and screening tools work (like the V-Chip and cable and satellite set-top boxes).	Parents
	http://www.projectonlinesafety.com	Project Online Safety's online portal offers one point of access to the wealth of valuable online safety tools and educational materials developed by technology companies, media organizations and non-profits. Coalition members include: AT&T, Facebook, Fox Interactive Media, MySpace.com, Internet Education Foundation, National Cable and Telecommunications Association, Network Solutions, Qwest, Time Warner Cable, and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. Each organization provides an overview of its online safety efforts.. (U.S.)	Adults, Parents and Professionals
	http://www.projectsafechildhood.gov	Guided by the leadership of the Attorney General, Project Safe Childhood (PSC) aims to combat the proliferation of technology-facilitated sexual exploitation crimes against children. This Project has a significant law enforcement focus but also recognizes the need for a broad, community-based effort to protect our children. This site has links to "Think Before You Post" advertising campaign. (U.S.)	Adults, Educators, Policy Makers
	http://www.protectkids.com	Information and interactive safety website created by enough.com and Donna Rice Hughes.	Children, Youth and Parents
	http://safecanada.ca/topic_e.asp?category=3	Links to resources regarding public safety in Canada.	Parents, and Adults.

 SafeKids.Com	http://www.safekids.com	Guidelines for family online safety. Affiliated with ConnectSafely. Includes online videos, online agreements and guidelines. (U.S.)	Parents
	http://www.safeonlineoutreach.com	British Columbia based website offering weekly media updates, handouts for youth and parents and an extensive database of issue related links and research. Also offer in-person presentations to groups throughout the Province.	Youth, Parents and Professionals
	http://www.safesurfincentral.org	Safe Surfin' began in 2000 as a foundation supporting the educational activities of Operation Blue Ridge Thunder (BRT), the Bedford County Sheriff Office's Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force. (U.S.)	Parents, Teachers, School Administrators, Law Enforcement and Librarians
	http://safeteens.com	Guidelines for teens and parents. Affiliated with ConnectSafely.	Youth and Parents
	http://www.staysafeonline.info	Stay Safe Online provides free and non-technical cyber security and safety resources to the public, so consumers, small businesses and educators have the know how to avoid cyber crime. A public-private partnership, NCSA sponsors include the Department of Homeland Security, Federal Trade Commission, and many private-sector corporations and organizations. (U.S.)	Adults, Parents, Educators, Administrators and Policy Makers
	http://www.staysafe.org	Staysafe.org is an educational website sponsored by the Microsoft Corporation "intended to help consumers understand both the positive aspects of the Internet as well as how to manage a variety of safety and security issues that exist online. (U.S.)	Youth, Parents, Seniors and Educators
	http://stopitnow.com	Stop it Now! UK & Ireland is a public health child sexual abuse prevention campaign. It is a national collaboration with voluntary and statutory sector partners. They manage the campaign, Stop it Now! and the National Freephone Helpline, which has been highly successful with 84% of calls coming from our target groups: people worried about their own behaviour and families and friends of actual and potential abusers.	Parents, Public for adults who may offend against children. Network assessing and treating current and potential sexual offenders

	http://www.teenangels.org	Teenangels is a group of 13-18 year-old volunteers that have been specially trained by the local law enforcement, and many other leading safety experts in all aspects of online safety, privacy, and security. After completion of the required training, the Teenangels run unique programs in schools to spread the word about responsible and safe surfing to other teens and younger kids, parents, and teachers. Teenangels was founded in 1999 by leading cyberlawyer Parry Aftab, Executive Director of WiredSafety.org	Youth and Educators http://www.thinkuknow.co.uk	This website sponsored by the UK Child Exploitation and Online Protection (CEOP) Centre contains loads of information on Internet safety and safe surfing for young people. Topics include mobiles, blogging and gaming sites and also has a reporting component. (UK)	Youth
	http://www.thinkuknow.com.au	Think U Know is an Internet safety education initiative and forms part of the NetAlert's Outreach program. Developed in partnership with the Virtual Global Taskforce and Microsoft. The Think U Know Internet safety program will be delivered starting in 2008. It is proposed that the program will deliver interactive, face-to-face Internet safety training to parents, carers and teachers through Australian primary and secondary schools using a network of accredited trainers. (AU)	Parents and Teachers
	http://www.bewebaware.ca	Be Web Aware is a national, bilingual public education program on Internet safety. The objective of everyone involved in this project is to ensure young Canadians benefit from the Internet, while being safe and responsible in their online activities. (CA)	Parents
	http://www.saft.ie/index.aspx	Webwise.ie is the Irish node of the Insafe network of national nodes that coordinate Internet safety awareness in Europe. Webwise.ie has developed an animated-lesson for 7-12 year olds, complete with interactive questions and related classroom activities, an Internet Safety Awareness Education Pack and Be Wise on the Net: Information and Advice for Schools.	Children, Youth, Parents and Teachers
	http://weron2u.ca/home	Website sponsored by the Province of Alberta aimed at educating youth about online predators.	Youth

 wired SAFETY	http://www.wiredsafety.org	The site offers educational services and online assistance and also reviews family-friendly Web sites, filtering software and other Internet services. Wired Safety also runs or works with several other affiliated online safety sites, such as: Wired Cops (www.wiredcops.org), Wired Kids (www.wiredkids.org), and Teen Angels (www.teenangels.org) and Net Bullies (www.NetBullies.com). Initiated by Parry Aftab (U.S.)	Children, Youth, Parents, Educators, Law Enforcement and Librarians
 Web Wise Kids	www.wiredwithwisdom.org	Webwisekids is a non-profit organization “committed to teaching children and their caregivers strategies for safe Internet use, including methods of detecting and deterring online predators.” It specializes in interactive software and games that teach kids how to spot online threats and deal with them promptly. Resources available for sale.	Parents and Educators
 wise up to IT	http://www.wiseuptoit.com.au	Wise up to IT explores the lives of four young people and their experiences on the Internet. It can be used in the classroom and is best suited for older grades in secondary school. (AU)	Older Teens